

Journey around our school

Introduction

- In this activity, the children took iPads around the school and took photographs of places they felt happy and safe, and places they felt less comfortable and made suggestions for development
- See the session plan in Section A for a detailed explanation of the activity and how it could be used.

